or any subpoena issued in behalf of such board, or on the refusal of any witness to testify to any matters regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, it shall be the duty of the circuit court of any county, or the judge thereof, on application of a member of the board, to compel obedience by attachment proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. A record of all hearings had under the provisions of this section shall be kept in the office of the live-stock sanitary board.

Tuberculin Test—Slaughtering of Diseased Animals—Disposition of Carcasses.
(Chap. 561, Act Aug. 17, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Subsection 9 of section 1492*b* of the statutes is amended to read:

SEC. 1492*b*. 9. If any such appraised animals be slaughtered on the premises of the owner thereof such slaughter shall be made under the supervision and direction of the State veterinarian or an assistant. If, after inspecting the carcass of the above-described animals, it is found, according to rules of inspection laid down by the live-stock sanitary board, which shall conform with those of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, that the carcass is unfit for human food, he shall destroy such carcass, or cause the same to be buried and covered with a sufficient quantity of lime to destroy the carcass. The hide shall be disinfected and otherwise cared for according to rules laid down by the live-stock sanitary board. If the carcass is fit to be used for human food it may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions made by the said board.

Tuberculin Test—Diseased Bovine Animals—Slaughtering and Appraisement.
(Chap. 93, Act May 14, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Subsections 1 and 11 of section 1492*b* and subsection 1 of section 1492*d* of the statutes are amended to read:

SEC. 1492*b*. 1. Whenever the owner shall not exercise the option mentioned in the preceding section,¹ and it shall be deemed necessary by the board to slaughter diseased animals and animals reacting to the tuberculin test, either on the premises or at some designated abattoir or any other place for demonstration purposes, and the representative of the live-stock sanitary board and State veterinarian can not agree with the owner as to the value of such animal, written notice shall be given to the owner, his agent or the person in charge of such animals, and to a justice of the peace in the county in which the animals may be of the purpose to order the slaughter thereof, giving the number and description of the animals and the name of the owner.

11. The owners of condemned and slaughtered animals shall receive compensation therefor from the State until June 1, 1917, as follows:

(a) For bovine animals condemned and ordered slaughtered by the board, on account of reacting to the tuberculin test, but upon whose carcass no tubercular lesion were found, the full appraised value, which in no case shall exceed $70.

(b) For bovine animals condemned and ordered slaughtered on account of having reacted to the tuberculin test, upon whose carcass tubercular lesions were found at the time of the slaughter thereof, but which carcass was passed for food by the inspector, three-fourths of the appraised value of such animal.

(c) For bovine animals described in subdivision (d) of this section, if the carcass of such animal is ordered tanked as unfit for food, by the inspector, one-half of the appraised value of such animal.

(d) For other animals condemned and ordered slaughtered by the board, three-fourths of the appraised value of such animal.

SECTION 1492*d*. 1. All claims against the State arising from the slaughter of animals shall be made by filing with the secretary of state a copy of the live-stock sanitary board's notice to the owner and to the justice of the peace, and the return of the

¹ The section referred to grants the owner the option of "retaining the animals in quarantine, under such restrictions as the board may prescribe or of shipping them under the auspices and direction of the board to some abattoir designated by it for immediate slaughter under United States government inspection."
